

Troop 626

Policy – Camp Credits

Philosophy: To provide the opportunity for Troop 626 chartered scouts to subsidize their own scouting needs through Troop sanctioned fundraising. Individual camp credit accounts will be maintained by the Treasurer in order to track scout fundraising and can only be used for the needs defined below.

Section 1: Camp credits accounts can only be added to through fundraising efforts associated with Troop 626 and camp credit accounts can only be added to by the individual scout for whom the camp credit account is set up.

Section 2: Camp credits can only be used for current BSA sanctioned events, equipment purchases, and/or current BSA fees. Camp credits cannot be used for prior BSA sanctioned events, prior equipment purchases, and/or prior BSA fees.

Section 3: Camp credits can be used to purchase equipment after a copy of the receipt has been produced and a Camp Credit Requisition form has been filled out and presented to the Troop Treasurer.

Section 4: Exceptions and special requests to the camp credit policy must be presented to the Troop Committee Chair. It is the Committee Chair's decision whether a vote is needed and if so, it will be voted on in the Budget Sub-Committee.

Section 5: Camp credit accounts may be shared between Troop 626 chartered scouts from the same family. Camp credit accounts may not be shared between chartered non-family members, or non-chartered non-family members.

Section 6: Camp credit accounts may not be used to pay for adult scouting needs.

Section 7: Camp Credit accounts must be used according to the acceptable uses defined above within six months after a scout ages out of the Troop 626 charter and only after a copy of the receipt has been produced and a Camp Credit Requisition form has been filled out and presented to the Troop Treasurer. Camp Credits that are not used after the six months after a scout ages out will be forfeited.

Section 8: Camp credit accounts may not be kept for any non-Troop 626 chartered scout - this includes non-scout family members.

Section 9: Forfeited camp credit accounts will be deposited in the Troop 626 general fund.
